

INTERBOROUGH GRAB BLOCKED BY AHEARN

Hearing Goes Over Until He Makes a Personal Inspection of the Ground.

The Local Improvement Board of Washington Heights to-day gave a public hearing to the taxpayers and the company on the proposal of the Interborough Company to close up the streets from Two Hundred and Eighteenth to Two Hundred and Twenty-first street inclusive, for the purpose of giving the company a front on the Harlem Ship Canal and a site for a big system of shops and yard. Nothing was accomplished. President Ahearn told the company's representatives two weeks ago that they would have to show him how the public would be benefited before he would consent to recommend such a thing, and he showed very plainly that he was opposed to the proposition to close the entire city front there.

To-day there was a strong opposition present and it seemed as if a big hearing would develop, but the Borough President put a stop to it by telling those opposed to the plan of the railroad company that nothing would be done until he had made a personal inspection of the ground, which he promised to do the latter part of the week. "I don't see how these people can ask for any such privilege as they are asking," said Mr. Ahearn.

KELTON ACTED AS HIS OWN ACCUSER

Bookkeeper's Employer
Wouldn't Make Complaint
Against Him in Court.

Robert Kelton, the conscience-stricken bookkeeper who gave himself up to the police because he was $500 short in his accounts, will probably go free because of sympathy for his wife and five children.

When he was arraigned in the Essex Market Court to-day George Callahan, of No. 34 West One Hundred and Twenty-third street, Vice-President of the Crescent Biscuit Company, of No. 23 Avenue D, which employed Kelton, had no complaint to make. Mr. Callahan said he would consult with members of his company before deciding what to do in Kelton's case.

Miss Bissell Says She Paid It To Theatrical Agent, Expecting to Star in Play.

Harry W. Mann, a theatrical agent, with offices in the Shubert Building, was hailed to the West Side Court to-day by Miss Bissell, a young bookkeeper of No. 10 West Twenty-third street. Miss Bissell charged Mann with obtaining $400 from her upon the pretext that he was coming to star in a play called "Outside the Gates of Paradise."

GEN. M'ALPIN'S AUTO DRIVER SENT TO JAIL.

Jules Novasse Is Sentenced by Justice Wyatt on the Third Conviction.

Jules Novasse, chauffeur for Gen. E. A. McAlpin, was to-day sent to jail for five days and fined $100 by Justice Wyatt in Special Sessions.

He was found guilty of violating the speed laws for the third time and was sentenced as a third offender. He was arrested Nov. 20 on Madison avenue, between Forty-sixth and Forty-seventh streets, while going twenty miles an hour.

WORKMAN FALLS TO DEATH OFF BUILDING.

Thomas Lofton, of No. 1465 Amsterdam avenue, to-day plunged to death from the new Police Headquarters Building. He was employed at handling lumber for the contractors. Lofton was passing a plank on a temporary platform he had built himself in the cupola, 20 feet above the top story of the building. Swooping to pick up a board he lost his balance and plunged head downward to the fifth floor, striking an iron beam in passing and landing on his head. His neck was broken and his skull crushed. He died two minutes after striking.

HAD ROOMERS, BUT DIDN'T KNOW IT

Mrs. Costigan Surprised at Finding Tenants in Apartments She Couldn't Rent.

Mrs. Catherine Costigan hasn't been able to secure roomers for her house at
No. 31 West Thirty-third street because of the Pennsylvania terminal's proximity. She has occupied the three-story house alone. She went upstairs to-day and was surprised to find a hall gas light lit. She tried a door, found it locked and rushed into the street. Policeman Wynne, of the West Thirty-seventh street station, went back with her, and after opening the doors found that two of the rooms in the supposedly roomier house were occupied.

LINEN vs. COTTON

Linen has more than twice the strength of cotton—as most any test will prove. One linen thread is as strong as two cotton threads of the same texture.

And when a number of threads are woven together the linen fabric will stand twice the wear and tear of the cotton fabric. That's why a linen collar will stand the rub of the laundry tub about twice as long as any cotton collar.

Triangle Linen Collars prove this conclusively. Yet they cost you no more than the inferior cotton collars which are commonly sold at 15c. (2 for 25c.)

With your next collar purchase try Triangle Linen Collars and realize the genuine satisfaction of a genuine linen collar—made to fit and stay fit as long as you wear it.

Quarter sizes—150 styles—every one of them linen and 4-ply. If your dealer hasn't the style you like, write us and we will see that you get it.
